

Virginia B. Andes Volunteer Community Clinic

Virginia B. Andes Volunteer Community Clinic provides free healthcare services to qualifying individuals who cannot otherwise afford care.

The clinic operates through volunteer medical professionals and community partnerships.

The organization's mission is improving healthcare access for underserved members of the community.